Subject-Application for student coordinators and other executive posts.

Dear students,

We are pleased to announce that we have successfully conducted auditions for session 2024-2025.

Additionally, we would like to inform all the members of the cultural society that applications are now open for the position of Student Coordinator and other executive posts for the upcoming session. This is a unique opportunity for students to take on a leadership role and make a positive impact on our student community.

Interested students who are currently members are required to fill the google form as part of the application process. The SOP should comprehensively outline the candidate's vision, goals, and strategic plans for the role.
